

SUNY Cortland

Athletes of the Week

for the week ending January 30, 2005

JEREMY NAU

Men's Ice Hockey
Senior, Rochester, NY/
Northfield Mt. Hermon Prep (MA)

Jeremy recorded a goal and an assist and led a strong Cortland defensive showing in the Red Dragons' 6-3 victory versus Plattsburgh on Friday. He also registered a goal and an assist in a 3-2 loss to Potsdam the following afternoon. Nau's goals were his first two of the season. He is second on the team and is currently tied for fifth nationally among Division III defensemen with 14 assists despite having played in only 13 of Cortland's 21 games.

CHRISTINA ACQUAVIVA

Women's Indoor Track and Field
Sophomore
Utica, NY/Proctor

Christina set a school record in the pentathlon with her second-place score of 3,267 points at the Bucknell University Bison Open on Friday. She qualified for the ECAC Div. III Championships in the pentathlon in addition to the high jump (5' 2.5") and long jump (17' 1.25"). Acquaviva also entered the open 60-meter hurdles on Friday and posted a time of 9.14 seconds, which converts to a provisional NCAA Div. III Championship qualifying time in the 55-meter hurdles.
