GENESEO, N.Y. -- Junior Kelli Johnson (Elma/Iroquois Central) converted a penalty stroke late in the second half to lift the nationally eighth-ranked Cortland field hockey team to a come-from-behind 3-2 victory at Geneseo Saturday afternoon in SUNYAC action. With the win, the Red Dragons improved to 10-1 overall and 4-0 in the conference, while the Knights fell to 6-6 and 4-1.

All the scoring took place in the second half of the game with Geneseo grabbing a 1-0 lead just two minutes, 24 seconds into the stanza. Jeanine Tripepi scored an unassisted goal for the Knights. Cortland tied the game less than five minutes later when senior Becky Osier (Morrisville/Morrisville-Eaton) tallied her sixth goal of the season.

Geneseo regained the lead on a goal off a penalty corner. Karen Garnish set up the score by Sarah Doster with 9:51 on the clock. The Red Dragons tied the score at 2-2 as senior Kara Brown (Fairport) converted a penalty stroke with 7:16 to play for her first goal of the season, setting up Johnson's game winner with 2:19 remaining. Johnson's goal was her team-high 12th of the season and moved her into third place in career scoring at Cortland with 122 points on 48 goals and 26 assists, breaking a tie with Stacey Saterlee and Dani Innerst.

Cortland senior goalie Jessica Anderson (East Islip) made six saves, while Geneseo goalie Amanda Carver stopped 10 shots.
