Six Red Dragons Earn NFHCA Div. III National Academic Honors

Six SUNY Cortland field hockey players have been named to the 2005 National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) Div. III National Academic Squad, and the entire program has earned a NFHCA Div. III National Academic Team Award for compiling better than a 3.0 grade point average.

Senior goalkeeper Jessica Anderson (East Islip), senior back Jessica Seren (Gloversville), junior forwards Brooke Fallon (Sachem) and Kelli Johnson (Elma/Iroquois Central), sophomore back Sarah Child (Cooperstown) and sophomore midfielder Kristin Courtney (Hyde Park/F.D. Roosevelt) were selected to the squad.

The Red Dragons completed the 2005 season with a 15-3 record, captured the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) title and tied for fifth nationally in Div. III.
