FINAL SCORE: Ursinus 2, Cortland 1

COLLEGEVILLE, PA. – Ursinus College goalie Jess Lamina (Doylestown, PA/Central Bucks West) made 13 saves as the nationally second-ranked Bears held off eighth-ranked SUNY Cortland, 2-1, in the NCAA Division III field hockey tournament quarterfinals.

Ursinus (20-2) advances to its first-ever national semifinals and will face two-time defending champion Salisbury (Md.) on Friday in Virginia. Cortland (15-3) finishes tied for fifth nationally for the second straight year. The Red Dragons have advanced to at least the national quarterfinals each of the last seven years.

Ursinus entered the game averaging four goals per game. Cortland senior goalie Jessica Anderson (East Islip) helped the Red Dragons hold the hosts to half that total by making a season-high 13 saves. The Bears, however, got on the board 8:58 into the first half when Kait Sutherland (Perkiomen, PA/Perkiomen Valley) scored off an assist from Ashley Ettinger (Schwenksville, PA/Boyertown). Sutherland started a penalty corner play that eventually moved the ball to Ettinger at the top of the circle. Ettinger whipped a diagonal cross to Sutherland waiting at the left corner of the cage for a one-touch shot.

The Ursinus lead grew to 2-0 with 23:31 left in the contest on another penalty corner play. Karen Wendler (Burlington, NJ) scored her 13th goal of the season on the play, with Sutherland assisting.

Cortland had two shots in the first half, both by Kelli Johnson (Elma/Iroquois Central) on penalty corners that were turned away by Lamina. The Red Dragons upped the pressure in the second half with 12 shots and eventually connected with 5:03 remaining. Off a corner, Johnson gathered the ball in the middle of the circle and found sophomore Kristin Courtney (Hyde Park/F.D. Roosevelt) for a tap-in to cut the lead to 2-1. The goal was Courtney's second in as many days and fourth of the season. Ursinus called timeout to regroup and kept the ball in Cortland's half the rest of the way to preserve the victory.
