SUNY Cortland vs. University of Rochester

Wednesday, September 6, 2006; Fauver Stadium; Rochester, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 1, Rochester 0

ROCHESTER, N.Y. – Freshman Christine McCabe (Greene) scored her first collegiate goal almost 12 minutes into the second half to give Cortland a 1-0 victory at Rochester. The Red Dragons upped their record to 3-0, all on the road, with the victory. The host Yellowjackets are now 0-2.

McCabe took a pass from sophomore Kayla Chambers (Craryville/Taconic Hills) on a penalty corner play and blasted a 12-yard shot from straight on under the dive of Rochester junior goalie Rachel Cahan (Evanston, IL/North Shore Country). Cortland sophomore goalie Stacy Billings (Marathon) made two saves for her second shutout of the season.

The Red Dragons dominated the game, outshooting Rochester 17-1 in the first half and 25-5 for the game. For the second straight year, however, Cahan kept her team close with stellar play in goal. She finished with 20 saves, 14 in the first half.

Last season in Cortland, Cahan made 18 saves in Rochester’s 1-0 loss to the Red Dragons.

Cortland completes a four-game road schedule on Friday at Houghton College and will play its first home game on Saturday, Sept. 16, against Hamilton College at noon.
