Cortland’s Frank Ranieri Selected to NABC Men’s Basketball All-East Team

SUNY Cortland men’s basketball senior forward Frank Ranieri (Cicero/Cicero-North Syracuse) has been chosen to the 2006 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Division III East All-District First Team.

Ranieri, who was also an All-ECAC and All-SUNYAC selection this season, led the Red Dragons with 15.3 points and 3.0 assists per game. He also pulled down six rebounds per game, shot 52 percent from the field and made 70 percent of his foul shots. Ranieri scored 445 points this winter and finished with 1,281 points in four years – the sixth-highest total in school history.

Cortland finished the season with a 24-5 record, matching the school mark for single-season victories. The Red Dragons won the SUNYAC regular season title with a 14-2 record and earned an at-large berth into the NCAA Division III playoffs. Cortland won its first-round NCAA contest and finished tied for 17th in the tournament.
