FINAL SCORE: Cortland 2, Fredonia 1 (OT)

CORTLAND, N.Y. – Sophomore Matt Schillace (Auburn/Niagara Univ.) scored 40 seconds into overtime to give Cortland a 2-1 victory over Fredonia in a SUNYAC contest. Schillace's goal made a winner of sophomore goalie Jason Lojewski (Whitesboro/Whitesboro High), who made 27 saves in his first appearance during his two seasons thus far as a Red Dragon.

Sophomore Jason Wilson (Johnston, RI/Northfield Mt. Hermon) and junior Tim Earl (Troy/Capital District Selects) assisted on the game winner for the Red Dragons (10-10-1, 5-5 SUNYAC).

Lojewski came tantalizingly close to recording a shutout in his first-ever collegiate showing. Trailing 1-0, Fredonia (9-10-2, 3-7 SUNYAC) pulled sophomore goalie Simon Maignan (Pully, Switzerland/French National) with 50 seconds left and tied the game on Kraig Kuzma's (Muskegon, MI/Capital Centre Jr. A) goal with 31 seconds remaining in regulation. Matt Zeman (Rocky River, OH/Toledo Jr. A) and Tom Briggs (Fruitport, MI/Sarnia Junior) assisted on the goal.

Cortland grabbed a 1-0 lead 7:14 into the second period on a slapshot by junior Nate Gagnon (Wilton/Univ. of Maine) from the right side just inside the blue line. Kevin Watters (Pittsford/Rochester Jr. Americans) and David Ambuhl (Clifton Park/Capital District Selects) notched assists on the goal, which was Gagnon's 14th of the season.

Fredonia had a shot hit the left pipe with 6:40 left in the second period. The Blue Devils were outshot 19-12 through two periods, but took 16 shots on goal in the third to Cortland's five. With 10:29 left in regulation, two penalties were called on Cortland to give Fredonia a two-man advantage. The Red Dragons were able, however, to kill off that penalty as well as another Fredonia power play that started with 3:49 remaining.

Cortland took both shots on goal in the overtime. Maignan finished with 24 saves for Fredonia, which finished with a 28-26 advantage in shots on goal.
