Cortland’s Nate Gagnon Chosen as SUNYAC Men’s Ice Hockey Player of the Week

SUNY Cortland junior forward Nate Gagnon (Wilton/Univ. of Maine) has been chosen as the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) men’s ice hockey Player of the Week for the week ending Nov. 16.

Gagnon recorded four goals and two assists in two Red Dragon road victories last weekend. He scored twice, including the game winner, in a 6-2 win at Fredonia on Friday and registered two goals and two assists in a 7-4 win at Buffalo State on Saturday.

Gagnon leads the Red Dragons in scoring with 13 points (eight goals, five assists). He is ranked second nationally in Division III in power play goals (five), seventh in goals per game (1.33) and ninth in points per game (2.17).

Cortland is off to a 4-0 start in SUNYAC play for the first time ever and is 5-1 overall. The Red Dragons are ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense (6.33 goals per game) and fourth in power play percentage (35.1 percent).

# #