HAMILTON, N.Y. – Cortland finished in second place, losing only to Division I host school, at the Colgate University Class of 1932 Men's Indoor Track and Field Invitational.

Sophomore Nick Wetherby (Olean) was voted by the coaches as the Male Athlete of the Meet. He finished first among 35 entries in the 200-meter dash with a meet record and ECAC Division III qualifying time of 22.29 seconds. He also was the top finisher in a 34-entry field in the 55-meter dash. He matched his personal-best time of 6.43 seconds, which is an NCAA Division III provisional qualifier.

Junior Marcus Matyas (Hamburg) won both the shot put and weight throw with ECAC qualifying distances. His best shot put was measured at 49' 9.25" and his winning weight throw was 52' 4.75". Junior Tyler Gutierrez (Waverly) won the pole vault with an ECAC height of 14' 9.25".

The Red Dragons had three runners finish in the top four of the 3,000-meter run, all with ECAC times. Sophomore Andrew Cloke (Corning/Notre Dame) was second (8:42.44), followed by senior Chuck Terry (Albany/CBA) in third (8:43.56) and junior C. Fred Joslyn (Chenango Forks) in fourth (8:50.63).

Also qualifying for ECAC's were senior Jason Manenkoff (Garnerville/North Rockland) in the 200-meter dash (fifth place, 22.92), junior Dave Neal (Port Ewen/Kingston) in the 800 meters (fourth, 1:56.70) and the 4x400-meter relay team of freshman Greg Mallabar (New Hartford), senior Paul Zalewski (Solvay), sophomore Jon Walters (Akron) and Neal, which placed third in 3:27.46.

Other highlights for Cortland included a third-place finish in the mile by sophomore Bill Buith (Franklin Square/Valley Stream) (4:23.98) and a third-place effort of 13' 3.5" in the pole vault by junior Stephen Wendt (Wilson). In addition, Manenkoff advanced to the finals of the 55-meter dash and finished sixth (6.77).
