NORTHFIELD, MINN. – SUNY Cortland freshman Tynez Wilson (Endicott/Union-Endicott), junior C. Fred Joslyn (Chenango Forks) and junior Andrew Cloke (Corning/Notre Dame) each earned All-America honors with their top-eight finishes at the NCAA Division III Men’s Indoor Track and Field Championships, hosted by St. Olaf College.

Cortland tied for 10th in the final team standings, its highest national finish since the championships originated in 1985. Wisconsin-La Crosse won the team title with 78 points, followed by Lincoln (Pa.) (31), Wisconsin-Oshkosh (27), Nebraska Wesleyan (26), New Jersey City (24), Mount Union (23), Loras (20), MIT (18), Widener (16) and Heidelberg and Cortland (15 each).

Wilson placed third in the triple jump Saturday with a distance of 47’ 4.5”, improving on his season best by an inch. He was sixth after the first three preliminary attempts at 45’ 11.25” before turning in his best effort on the second of the three attempts in the finals. Tony Gregory of Cabrini College won the event at 47’ 11.25”, while the runner-up was less than an inch ahead of Wilson.

Joslyn finished fourth out of 13 runners in the 5,000 meters Saturday in 14:41.46. Widener’s Macharia Yuot won the race in 14:33.29. Joslyn was also an All-American during cross country season last fall for the Red Dragons.

Cloke placed fifth in the mile Saturday with a time of 4:14.51. He was the 10th and final qualifier in Friday’s preliminaries in 4:19.09. In the finals, Cloke finished only 0.26 seconds ahead of the fifth-place runner, with the next two competitors less than a second behind that runner. Will Leer of Pomona Pitzer won the race with a meet record time of 4:09.42.

Sophomore Amaan Siddeeq (New Hampton/Goshen), Cortland’s other national qualifier, was scratched from Friday’s 55-meter dash preliminaries due to injury.
