BUFFALO, N.Y. -- The SUNY Cortland men's and women's swimming and diving teams each finished in third place out of nine schools at the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Championships at the Burt Flickinger Center at Erie Community College. Geneseo won the men's meet with 902 points, followed by Oswego (600), Cortland (424) and New Paltz (390). Geneseo also won the women's title with 815 points. Oswego led by two points entering the final event but placed second in the 400-yard freestyle relay to Geneseo and finished with 811 points. Cortland scored 474 points and New Paltz was fourth with 446 points.

Cortland freshman Andrew Chevalier (Chazy/Chazy Central Rural) was named the Most Outstanding Swimmer of the men's championship meet. He won his third league title in as many days on Saturday, capturing the 200-yard butterfly in 1:56.76. He missed the NCAA provisional qualifying standard by 0.27 seconds. Chevalier won the 400-yard individual medley on Thursday and the 200-yard individual medley on Friday.

Junior Jack Popper (Merrick/Bellmore JFK) finished second in three-meter diving with 424.45 points. He had also finished second on the one-meter board on Thursday. Freshman Jason Wiese (Buffalo/Kenmore West) was fourth in the 1,650-yard freestyle (17:25.15) and sophomore James Pioli (Grand Island) was sixth in the 200-yard backstroke (2:01.63).

Freshman Patrick Connolly (Shrub Oak/Lakeland) placed seventh in the 200-yard butterfly (2:03.59) and senior Dan Stevens (Cortland) qualified for the finals in the 200-yard breaststroke and finished eighth in that race (2:30.69). In addition, the 400-yard freestyle relay team of Chevalier, Connolly, sophomore Brendan Quest (Staten Island/Monsignor Farrell) and Pioli was fourth (3:15.33) and freshman Chad Shelby (Bohemia/Connetquot) won the “B” final of the 200-yard backstroke (2:06.46).

In the women's meet, Cortland's 400-yard freestyle relay team of junior Nicole Damiano (Middletown), freshman Marissa Bechtold (Lockport), freshman Allison Houseman (Wellsville) and freshman Nicole LaBarge (Morrisonville/Peru) finished in third place (3:41.40). Sophomore Abby Murphy (Montour Falls/Odessa-Montour Falls) was fourth in the 200-yard breaststroke (2:30.56) and junior Aubrey Talaska (San Antonio, TX/Sandra Day O'Connor) finished fifth in the 200-yard breaststroke (2:31.05). Freshman Krista Lennox (Buffalo/Williamsville East) placed sixth in the 1,650-yard freestyle (19:03.33) and LaBarge was seventh in the 200-yard butterfly (2:20.34).
