Cortland's Jack Popper Co-Recipient of SUNYAC's James Fulton Award

SUNY Cortland senior Jack Popper (Merrick/Bellmore JFK) has been selected as one of two recipients of the 2005 James Fulton Award. The award is given annually to a State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) male swimmer or diver at the conclusion of the league's championship meet.

The award, voted upon by the league's coaches, recognizes athletic and academic achievement, as well as improvement through a person's collegiate career.

Popper won the SUNYAC three-meter diving title with an NCAA provisional qualifying score of 468.20 points. He also finished second on the one-meter board with 409.65 points. Popper is a physical education major with a 3.17 overall grade point average. In addition to being a diver, Popper also played three years on Cortland's men's lacrosse team.
