SUNY Cortland finished third at the 12-team New York State Women's Collegiate Athletic Association (NYSWCAA) volleyball tournament. The second-seeded Red Dragons (40-2) had their school-record 39-match winning streak snapped in the semifinals with a 30-28, 31-29, 28-30, 30-18 loss to third-seeded Nazareth. Cortland bounced back to sweep Ithaca, 30-26, 30-26, 30-28, in the third-place match to reach the 40-win mark for the first time since 1997.

Top-seeded NYU won the title with a 3-0 win over Nazareth in the championship match. Cortland senior setter Jamie McMullen (Castile/Letchworth) and senior middle hitter Katie Pietrzak (Rochester/Greece Arcadia) were named to the all-tournament team.

Junior Siobhan Loughlin (Hauppauge) led the Red Dragons versus Nazareth with 13 kills and three blocks. Freshman Katie Brody (Apalachin/Vestal) finished with 10 kills and 11 digs and McMullen just missed a “triple double” with 35 assists, 10 kills and nine digs. Pietrzak added seven kills and seven blocks and senior Andrea Smith (San Diego, CA/Frontier Central (NY)) had seven kills, 15 digs and six blocks.

Brody paced Cortland versus Ithaca with 12 kills while Smith and Loughlin each had 10 kills. Smith also finished with 13 digs and two aces and Loughlin had four blocks. McMullen recorded 39 assists, eight kills and seven digs.

Cortland will conclude the regular season on Tuesday at 7 p.m. at home versus Elmira College. The Red Dragons will host the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) tournament on Nov. 7-8.

# #