SUNY Cortland senior midfielder Sara Gorman (Lindenhurst), sophomore defender Erin Gallagher (Carthage), freshman attacker Jennifer Willis (Huntington/Walt Whitman) and senior attacker Michelle Michaels (Syracuse/West Genesee) have been chosen to the 2004 Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Division III Upstate New York women's lacrosse all-star team. Gorman, Gallagher and Willis were first team selections. Michaels was named to the second team.

Gorman, a two-time All-American and two-time State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Player of the Year, led the Red Dragons with 46 goals and 19 assists for 65 total points. She also had team-highs of 47 ground balls and 31 caused turnovers and was third on the team with 37 draw controls. Gorman finished her collegiate career with 128 goals and 42 assists for 170 points. She is tied for eighth at Cortland in career goals, tied for seventh in career assists and ninth in career points.

Gallagher registered one goal, one assist, 34 ground balls and 18 caused turnovers in 19 games. She was a mainstay on a Cortland defense that allowed less than seven goals per game and only permitted opponents to reach double-figures in a game four times.

Willis, the SUNYAC Co-First Year Player of the Year, was Cortland's second-leading scorer this spring with 40 goals and 12 assists for 52 points. She led the Red Dragons with 40 draw controls and six game-winning goals and also recorded 39 ground balls and 13 caused turnovers.

Michaels was tied for third on Cortland's squad this spring with 25 goals and was tied for fourth with 27 total points. She also picked up 27 ground balls and caused eight turnovers.

Cortland finished the season with a 13-6 record. The Red Dragons won their sixth straight SUNYAC title and qualified for the NCAA Division III playoffs for the sixth consecutive year. Cortland won its NCAA opening-round game before losing to eventual champion Middlebury, 10-5, in the second round to finish tied for ninth nationally.

# #