Andrea Marino Named SUNYAC Women's Soccer First Year Player of the Year; Four Red Dragons Selected to All-Conference Team

SUNY Cortland freshman forward Andrea Marino (Utica/Mt. Markham) has been selected as the 2003 State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) women's soccer First Year Player of the Year in a vote of the league's coaches.

Marino is also one of four Cortland players to earn post-season All-SUNYAC honors. Senior defender Jen Crook (Fulton/G. Ray Bodley) and senior midfielder Jodie Gabel (Glen Rock, NJ) were chosen to the all-conference first team. Sophomore midfielder Kelsey Geary (Ogdensburg) was a second-team selection and Marino was honorable mention.

Marino was second on Cortland's squad this fall with seven goals, including two game winners, and seven assists for 21 points. She played in all 19 games, starting 18, for the 8-9-2 Red Dragons.

Crook started all 19 games and finished the season with three goals and two assists. Gabel, also a starter in all 19 games, was Cortland's leading scorer with 13 goals and four assists for 30 points. Geary started in all 18 games that she appeared in. She recorded three goals, and her team-high 12 assists ranked second in the SUNYAC.
