FINAL SCORE: Rochester 4, Cortland 0

ROCHESTER, N.Y. – Rochester jumped out to a 2-0 lead less than 12 minutes into the game and went on to defeat visiting Cortland, 4-0, in a non-conference game at Fauver Stadium. The host Yellowjackets (2-1) entered the game ranked fifth in the NSCAA Division III New York Region. Cortland is ranked ninth.

Alison Collins scored on a 10-yard shot that just eluded Cortland junior goalkeeper Christa Windhorst (Lancaster) 5:55 into the contest. The lead grew to 2-0 at the 11:41 mark when Emily Urbanczyk headed in a corner kick. Karen Forsythe assisted on the goal.

Windhorst made four of her five saves in the first half to keep the Red Dragons close. She made a diving stop on a 25-yard Forsythe shot, and then later in the period stopped both a blast by Urbanczyk from the right side and the ensuing eight-yard shot by Collins off the rebound.

Cortland applied some pressure early in the second half but couldn't get on the board. Rochester added to its lead 18:09 into the half when Kristin Kelly was awarded a penalty kick after being taken down in the penalty area. She converted the kick to the low left side of the net. Just over two minutes later, Sarah Crimmins played a long ball down the right wing to Kelly, who got behind the defense and lobbed a 20-yard shot over the onrushing Windhorst.

Sarah Malecki started in goal for Rochester and made three saves in 73:33. Adrianne Hulchanski played the final 16:27 and made one save. Rochester outshot Cortland 18-6, including an 11-1 margin in the first half.
