SUNY Cortland vs. College of Wooster

RIT Tournament

Saturday, September 2, 2006; Rochester, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 4, Wooster 3

ROCHESTER, N.Y. – Senior Marie Valentino (Ithaca) registered a goal and an assist, and freshman Anna Whitmore's (Dryden) first career goal turned out to be the game-winner as the Cortland women's soccer team opened its season with a 4-3 win versus the College of Wooster (OH) in the first round of the RIT Tournament. The Red Dragons advance to face nationally 19th-ranked Wisconsin-Eau Claire, which defeated host RIT 2-0 in the other semifinal, in the championship game on Sunday.

In a game played in cold, windy and rainy conditions, neither team could grab more than a one-goal lead. Wooster (0-1) opened the scoring in the 13th minute on a partial breakaway goal by Erin Lustic. Cortland (1-0) answered with the next two goals. Sophomore Kayla Sweet (Fonda/Fonda-Fultonville) one-timed a pass from Valentino in front in the 18th minute, then junior Andrea Marino (West Winfield/Mount Markham) set up Valentino in the 28th minute for the lead. Wooster evened the game right before the half when Sarah Schostarez tapped in a rebound after a free kick in the 43rd minute.

Wooster took its second lead of the game when Winnie Adrien dribbled through two defenders and beat Cortland junior goalie Megan Thayer (Walworth/Wayne Central) in the 58th minute. The Red Dragons responded with two goals in a four and a half minute span to earn the win. In the 66th minute, sophomore Katie Trivisonno (Apalachin/Owego Free Academy) curled a shot into the upper corner to tie the game at 3-3. Whitmore then netted the game-winning score in the 70th minute with a floater into the right corner of the goal off an assist from junior Kylie Wood (Massena).

Thayer made three saves in her initial game as a Red Dragon, while Staci Alario stopped three saves for Wooster.
