SUNY Cortland Women's Outdoor Track and Field

Day 3 of 3 at NCAA Division III Championships

Saturday, May 28, 2005; Wartburg College; Waverly, Iowa

WAVERLY, IOWA – Cortland sophomore Christina Acquaviva (Utica/Proctor) earned All-America honors in the 100-meter hurdles with a seventh-place showing in the event at the NCAA Division III Women's Outdoor Track and Field Championships at Wartburg College.

Acquaviva set a new school record with her time of 14.56 seconds. She had tied the previous school mark of 14.57 seconds, held by Jenn White, in Friday's preliminaries. Sheana Grigsby of Carthage College won the race in 14.08 seconds.

Cortland tied for 39th in the final team standings with six points – two from Acquaviva in the 100-meter hurdles and four from her fifth-place showing in the heptathlon. Wartburg won the meet with 43 points.
