ITHACA, N.Y. – Junior Margery Holman (Dryden) provisionally qualified for the NCAA Division III with her second-place score of 4,211 points at the New York State Collegiate Track Conference (NYSCTC) outdoor heptathlon championship at Ithaca College.

Sophomore Colleen Martin (Centereach/Ward Melville) finished fifth out of eight competitors with a score of 3,580 points. Holman and Martin combined to earn 12 team points that will be applied toward Cortland’s score at the remainder of the NYSCTC Championships this weekend at St. Lawrence.

Holman finished second in the 100-meter hurdles (16.08), shot put (34’ 11”), 200-meter dash (27.35) and long jump (15’ 11”). She was also third in the high jump (5’ 1”) and 800 meters (2:31.34) and fifth in the javelin throw (81’ 8”).

Martin’s top finish was a second-place showing in the 800 meters (2:30.94). She was also third in the long jump (14’ 1.25”) and the javelin (92’ 1.25”), fourth in the 100-meter hurdles (17.52) and fifth in the high jump (4’ 9.5”).

# #