SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Junior Margery Holman (Dryden) won the pentathlon and Cortland turned in a number of other ECAC qualifying performances at the non-team scoring Syracuse University Invitational.

Holman posted a winning pentathlon score of 3,077 points. Sophomore Colleen Martin (Centereach/Ward Melville) finished fourth in the event with 2,754 points.

Senior Andrea Gentile (Middletown/Minisink Valley) finished second in the 60-meter hurdles (9.21), while junior Michelle Jones (Burnt Hills/Burnt Hills-Ballston Lake), sophomore Ashley Wirges (Beekman/Arlington) and senior Jen Longwell (Elmira/Southside) were second (2:19.78), third (2:22.36) and fourth (2:22.69), respectively, in the 800 meters.

Cortland fielded two 4x400-meter relay teams, and both met the ECAC qualifying standard. The combination of Wirges, Jones, Longwell and Britt Warren (Syracuse/Liverpool) finished fourth in 4:08.71, while freshman Kate Omans (Bayport/St. John the Baptist), freshman Alanna Hollborn (Islip Terrace/East Islip), junior Jessie Ellis (Springville/Springville Griffith Inst.) and freshman Danielle Kelley (East Aurora) finished fifth (4:08.98).

The Red Dragons’ other ECAC qualifier was junior Rachel Sweet (Rochester/Greece Athena), who finished seventh in the 1,000 meters (3:10.16).
