

SUNY CORTLAND

Invites You to Campus This Week

For information, call the Office of Campus Activities and Corey Union at 753-2321 (then press "1")

Saturday, March 6

- 10 a.m. Children's Museum Series: "Nature Nook Series," Susan Stratton, Childhood/Early Childhood Education Department, O'Heron Newman Hall, 8 Calvert St., Cortland. Continues until 1 p.m.

Wednesday, March 10

- 11 a.m. Wellness Wednesday Series: "Staying Safe on Spring Break," exhibit presented by health promotion interns and members of Colleges Against Cancer, Corey Union first floor. Continues until 2 p.m.
- 12:30 p.m. Sandwich Seminar: "Migrant Farmworkers in Upstate New York," presented by Ute Ritz-Deutch, History Department, Brockway Hall Jacobus Lounge
- 4:30 p.m. Brooks Lecture Series Speaker: "Field Memories: Re-Remembering Resistance — Victimhood, Agency and Affect in Women's Experiences of Violence," by Himika Bhattacharya, an assistant professor of women's studies at Syracuse University, Moffett Center, Room 2127. A speaker reception will begin at 4 p.m. in Brooks Museum, Moffett Center, Room 2126.
- 7 p.m. Lecture: "A Press-Pulse Model of Mass Extinction Meets T-Rex," by Nan Crystal Arens, an associate professor of geology at Hobart and William Smith Colleges in Geneva, N.Y., Sperry Center, Room 104
- 7 p.m. Performance: Magician Justin Kredible, Corey Union Function Room

Thursday, March 11

- Noon Sandwich Seminar: "The Winding Road to Lesbian Fertility," Kathryn Coffey, Health Department, Brockway Hall Jacobus Lounge

Friday, March 12

Spring Breaks Begins at 6 p.m.

Classes Resume on March 22

- 4 p.m. Friday Films at Four FilmFest: "Two Women," a 1960 film directed by Vittorio De Sica, will be introduced by Anne Wiegard, English Department. Refreshments served at 3:50 p.m.

Because of Spring Break, the next Campus Calendar will appear on March 20

For more information, visit us at www.cortland.edu/campusnews.html

