

SPORT MANAGEMENT STUDENTS TO PRESENT AT NATIONAL WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

SUNY Cortland undergraduate and graduate sport management students will be presenting 10 poster sessions during the national "Succeeding as Women in Higher Education" Conference to be held from October 23-25, 2009. The poster sessions will be held from 4:30-6:30 p.m. on Friday, October, 23 in the Old Main Building on the SUNY Cortland campus. For details about the conference visit <http://www2.cortland.edu/centers/CGIS/swhe>.

Below are the titles of the sessions:

- Game to love: An investigative study into the dominance of tennis in women's sport
Eavan Mulligan & Simon Farrant
- Young women, media, sport and society
Matthew Targett & Birgit Soethof
- Comparative analysis of the development of women's soccer in the USA and UK
Francis Egleton & Thomas Reast
- The development of women's soccer in the United States
Matthew Swinder
- Gender discrimination in the sport of tennis
Alexandra Ber
- Female athletic directors in the NCAA
Kobi Albert, Matthew Troll & Ryan Prgent
- Women running the man's game: Examining (the lack of) female leadership roles in men's professional soccer
John Hunt & John Dodds
- What are the obstacles that women face in obtaining leadership roles within sport?
Jen Hutchison & Tom Baker
- A gender comparison of coaching staff of the top and bottom 10 Olympic & Paralympic performing countries
Jenna Boyce, Pedro Suarez & Nathan Fisher
- The depiction of triathletes in the media
Jo Lee