SUNY Cortland vs. The College of New Jersey
Sunday, November 3, 2002; Ewing, N.J.

FINAL SCORE: The College of New Jersey 2, Cortland 0

EWING, N.J. -- Sophomore Colleen Stamler (Stockholm, NJ/Vernon Township) scored twice, both assisted by sophomore Kim Feeley (Collingswood, NJ), as nationally fourth-ranked The College of New Jersey (11-2) defeated fifth-ranked Cortland 2-0.

Stamler swept in a pass at the far post off a penalty corner play 5:55 into the first half. She scored again 3:18 into the second half, tapping in the ball after Feeley redirected a shot on a penalty corner play.

Cortland (14-3) was outshot 7-2 in the first half, but outshot the Lions 14-3 in the second half. The Red Dragons also held a 15-8 advantage in penalty corners, including an 11-4 margin in the second half. Cortland was awarded a penalty stroke with 14:09 left, but sophomore Ashley Ostrander's (Whitney Point) attempt was saved by New Jersey senior goalie Sara Bouroult (Boonton, NJ).

Bouroult finished with seven saves. Senior Erin Morris (East Amherst/Williamsville North) stopped five shots for Cortland in 43:47 and sophomore Joanna Lent (Corinth) made two saves in 26:13 of action.

The Red Dragons are finished with their regular-season schedule. The defending national champions will now await a potential bid to the NCAA Division III playoffs. Bids will be announced at the end of next weekend.
