SUNY Cortland vs. Wilkes University
Thursday, October 23, 2003; Artillery Park; Kingston, Pa.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 5, Wilkes 0

KINGSTON, PA. – Cortland scored twice in less than two minutes to start the game on its way to a 5-0 victory over host Wilkes University. The Red Dragons, ranked fourth nationally in Division III, improve their record to 14-0 while posting their fourth straight shutout and sixth in the last seven games. The Lady Colonels are 7-8.

Junior forward Ashley Ostrander (Whitney Point) became the sixth player in school history to reach the career 100-point mark. She scored just 32 seconds into the game off an assist from senior Melissa Heyde (Somers) and reached the century mark when she assisted on the first of freshman Molly Brown's (Liverpool) two goals with 12:45 left in the half. Ostrander has career totals of 34 goals and 32 assists, including 11 goals and 10 assists this season. She is five assists shy of tying the school career record of 37 set by Julie Gentner from 1999-2002.

Cortland scored all five of its goals in the first half. Senior Alana LaMorte's (Miller Place) unassisted goal 1:42 into the game gave the Red Dragons a 2-0 lead. Freshman Kelli Johnson (Elma/Iroquois) tallied her team-leading 14th goal of the season with 25:52 left in the half, assisted by senior Jessica Ueltschi (Holland Patent). Johnson's 14 goals are a new school record for goals by a freshman, eclipsing the previous record of 13 set by Ostrander in 2001.

Brown's first goal extended the Cortland lead to 4-0. She added her second goal, unassisted, with 8:54 remaining in the period.

Sophomore Jessica Anderson (East Islip) made one save in 57:45 of action. Junior Joanna Lent (Corinth) stopped two shots in the final 12:15. Wilkes' starting goalie Desiree Podrasky made four saves but allowed all five goals in 26:06. Carli Boccardi replaced Podrasky after Cortland's fifth goal and made seven saves while shutting down the Red Dragons the rest of the way.

Cortland's previous two trips to Wilkes had resulted in close contests. The Red Dragons won 3-2 in 1999 and 3-2 in penalty strokes in 2001 during Cortland's national championship season.
