Six Cortland Players Chosen to SUNYAC Field Hockey All-League Squad

Six members of SUNY Cortland's field hockey team have been selected to the 2004 State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) all-star squad.

Sophomore forward Kelli Johnson (Elma/Iroquois), senior midfielder Judy Slopnick (Mohawk) and junior back Kara Brown (Fairport) were first-team selections. Senior forward Becky Osier (Morrisville/Morrisville-Eaton), senior midfielder Kate Campbell (Lancaster) and sophomore back Sarah Child (Cooperstown) were named to the all-league second team.

Johnson leads the Red Dragons with 14 goals, 15 assists and 43 total points through 15 games. She has four game-winning goals. Johnson is currently tied for eighth in career scoring at Cortland with 90 points (36 goals, 18 assists) in only two seasons.

Slopnick has two goals and five assists for nine points this fall. Brown has one goal and has helped lead a defense that has posted seven shutouts and has allowed only 13 goals.

Osier is second on the team with 12 goals and 27 total points and is the team leader with five game-winning goals. Campbell has three goals and six assists for 12 points. She is second on the team in assists and third in total points. Child has two defensive saves while anchoring the defense as the team's sweeper.

Cortland won its fifth straight SUNYAC title with a 4-1 league record. The Red Dragons are presently 14-1 and are ranked fifth nationally in Division III. They will play next on Sunday, Oct. 31, at 10th-ranked The College of New Jersey.
