SUNY Cortland vs. St. Lawrence University
Wednesday, October 27, 2004; Stadium Complex White Field; Cortland, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 4, St. Lawrence 1

CORTLAND, N.Y. -- The nationally fifth-ranked Cortland field hockey team erupted for four second-half goals, including three in a two minute, 41 second span, as it defeated St. Lawrence, 4-1, Wednesday afternoon at the SUNY Cortland Stadium Complex. The win was the ninth in a row for the Red Dragons and improved their overall record to 14-1, while the Saints fell to 9-6 with the loss.

Cortland was led by senior Becky Osier’s (Morrisville/Morrisville-Eaton) goal and two assists and sophomore Kelli Johnson’s (Elma/Iroquois Central) goal and an assist. Freshman Jen Girard (Clifton Park/Shenendehowa) and senior Judy Slopnick (Mohawk) each added a goal for Cortland. Junior goalkeeper Jessica Anderson (East Islip) made two saves in the game, both in the opening half.

Junior Tiffany Eisenbeck (Clinton) tallied the Saints’ goal off an assist from sophomore Ali Mattison (Osterville, MA/Tabor). Freshman goalie Emilie Lannamann (Durham, NH/Proctor Academy) stopped seven shots, including six in the second half.

St. Lawrence grabbed a 1-0 lead late in the first half. After the Red Dragons were whistled for a violation on their own penalty corner, St. Lawrence junior Abigail Copeland (Rexford/Shenendehowa) sent a long ball up the left side to Mattison, who sent a pass into the arc. The ball bounced to Eisenbeck, who sent a shot through Anderson’s pads for her 11th goal off the season.

The Saints held the lead until early in the second half. Johnson opened Cortland’s scoring with 28:01 remaining in the stanza. Osier fed a long pass into the arc that Johnson controlled and slammed past Lannamann from in close. One minute, 11 seconds later, Johnson fed Osier for the game winner. Johnson possessed the ball on a penalty corner hit from senior Kate Campbell (Lancaster) and fed a pass to Osier on the left, where she one-timed a 12-yard shot through traffic. Osier collected her second assist one minute, 30 seconds later when Girard tapped the ball in at the left post. Slopnick finished the scoring with 7:56 remaining. After a defensive save by St. Lawrence senior Kate Pellegrini (Bristol, VT/Mt. Abraham) right at the goal line, Slopnick cleaned up by tipping the ball through a pile of bodies.

Cortland outshot St. Lawrence, 20-9 in the game, including 15-2 in the second half, and held a decisive 18-5 advantage in penalty corners.
