Cortland's Josh Jablonski, Ryan DeCamp Earn Academic All-District Honors

Cortland safety Josh Jablonski (West Seneca/West Seneca West) and placekicker Ryan DeCamp (Plattsburgh/Seton Catholic) have been named to the 2004 College Division District I All-Academic Football Team. Both players advance to the national ballot and are eligible for Academic All-America honors. The all-district team encompasses Division II and III schools from New England and New York.

Jablonski, a junior academically and a sophomore athletically, is a physical education major with a 3.71 overall grade point average. He finished the season second on the Red Dragon squad with 68 tackles. He recorded a team-best three blocked kicks and also registered 8.5 tackles for lost yardage, including five sacks, an interception, six pass breakups and eight quarterback hurries.

A starter in all nine games, Jablonski made 12 tackles in a 34-33 loss to eventual New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC) champion Rowan and had 10 tackles in road wins over Buffalo State and Western Connecticut State.

DeCamp is a senior communications major with a 3.73 overall grade point average. He made 21-of-25 point-after kicks and four field goals in nine tries this fall to finish second on the team in scoring with 33 points. He connected on a career-best 46-yard field goal in the Red Dragons' 16-12 win at nationally eighth-ranked Montclair State in early October.

In his two seasons with the Red Dragons, DeCamp made 46-of-52 point-after kicks and 13-of-22 field goals. He transferred to Cortland before the 2003 season after playing two years at Division I Canisius College.

Cortland finished the season with a 5-4 record. The Red Dragons were third in the NJAC with a 4-2 record, with their two league losses coming by a combined four points.

###