Fielding a young team, especially on the defensive side of the ball, the 2003 Cortland football squad got off to a slow start. The Red Dragons began 2-4, but were quickly maturing into a formidable squad. Three straight wins to finish the regular season led Cortland to its second straight ECAC Division III Northwest post-season appearance.

This year, Cortland returns 17 starters and sets its sights on an NCAA playoff bid — last achieved by the Red Dragons in 1997. Now in its fifth season as a New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC) member, eighth-year head coach Dan MacNeill’s squad looks to win its first league title and earn the conference’s NCAA automatic bid.

Cortland’s offense returns nine starters this fall. That figure includes senior tight end Tony Romano, a starter from 2000-02 and in the first two games last year before missing the remainder of the season due to injury. Also back among the receiving corps are seniors Neal Heaton Jr. and Jon Frechette. Heaton led the Red Dragons with 44 catches for 594 yards last year and is 44 receptions and 622 yards from matching school career records. He is already Cortland’s career leader in touchdown catches with 19, two ahead of Romano.

Frechette entered last season with three career receptions, but enjoyed a breakout year with 29 catches for 380 yards. Sophomore Anthony Morat will also look to expand his receiving role this season after grabbing 14 passes for 204 yards in 10 games last autumn.

Senior tailback Steve Davis has rushed for more than 600 yards in each of his first three seasons and enters this fall with 1,920 career rushing yards, 80 short of becoming the fifth 2,000-yard rusher in school history and 579 yards from moving into second place on the Cortland career rushing chart. Junior fullback Matt Rickert started the final six games last season and averaged nearly four yards per carry on 45 attempts.

Four starters return on the offensive line that helped the Red Dragons’ offense average 341.1 yards per game last year. Senior tackle and tri-captain Jim Coughlin enters his fourth season as a starter. Junior guards Bobby DeThomasis, also a tri-captain, and Eric Jendryaszek are also back along with sophomore tackle Matt Cicuera. The Red Dragons will be looking for a new center with the loss of Dave Graziosi, and one of the current returnees may be moved to that position as the season opener approaches.

The big question for the Red Dragons offensively is at quarterback with the departure of record-setting three-year starter J.J. Tutwiler. Sophomore Drew Lascari saw limited duty behind Tutwiler last fall. He completed 5-of-7 passes for 43 yards and he rushed for one touchdown. Mark Bly was the third-string quarterback at the start of last season. He appeared in two games as a placekick holder, but missed the rest of the year due to injury.

Cortland’s defense is in the unique position of being both young and experienced at the same time. Five first-year players were in the starting lineup by the end of last season, giving the Red Dragons a still-youthful group this year that has already been tested in tough situations.

Sophomore inside linebacker Matt Montpetit made 78 stops and forced three fumbles last season and junior inside linebacker Casey Lorenz made 33 tackles. Sophomore outside linebacker Josh Jablonski missed portions of the season due to injury but did make five starts, including the final two games, and registered 41 tackles in six games.

Senior tri-captain Travis Costin made a successful transition from linebacker to defensive end last season. He finished with 58 tackles, including five sacks, and tied a school single-season record with five forced fumbles. Sophomore tackle Adam Haas also returns from last year’s starting line. Starting all 10 games during his freshman season, Haas led the Red Dragons with 6.5 sacks and 16 total tackles for losses and was fourth on the team with 75 tackles.

Sophomore free safety Stef Sair earned a starting role by the third week of the season last fall and completed the year with 50 tackles and a team-high five interceptions. His interception total is the highest single-season mark at Cortland since 1981.

Senior placekicker Ryan DeCamp transferred to Cortland from Canisius College last season and earned a starter’s role in pre-season camp. He connected on 9-of-13 field goals, including the game winner as time expired in Cortland’s 16-15 Cortaca Jug win at Ithaca, and made 25-of-27 point-after kicks. Tutwiler was Cortland’s punter the past three seasons, leaving the job open in the pre-season.

Frechette and Romano have both seen some action in that area in the past, and one of them may emerge as the starter when the season begins. Frechette averaged 32.4 yards on seven punts last year.

Dan MacNeill, Head Coach

Dan MacNeill enters his eighth season as SUNY Cortland’s head football coach in 2004. His teams are a combined 40-32 and have made three post-season appearances.

In 2002, MacNeill led the Red Dragons to a 9-2 mark — the most wins at the school since 1990 — and the ECAC Division III Northwest title. The team also placed second in the New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC) with a 4-2 record. In 2003, Cortland finished the regular season with a 5-4 mark before losing in the ECAC Northwest championship game. In his first season at the helm in 1997, MacNeill guided Cortland to an 8-3 mark and a berth in the NCAA Division III playoffs.

Among MacNeill’s other highlights at Cortland are a 32-31 win over nationally second-ranked and eventual national semifinalist Rowan University in the 2001 season and four victories in seven tries against rival Ithaca College in the annual “Cortaca Jug” game.

MacNeill has coached four All-Americans, 35 All-East and 29 All-ECAC players at Cortland, including Omar Darling, the 1997 ECAC Upstate New York Player of the Year, and Chuck Eich, the 2003 ECAC Upstate New York Defensive Rookie of the Year. In addition, his players have earned 44 All-NJAC honors since the program joined the league in 2000.

An assistant coach at Division I-AA Villanova University from 1984-1996, MacNeill is Cortland’s 11th head coach since the school’s modern era of football began in 1924. MacNeill served as linebackers coach at Villanova and was the team’s defensive coordinator from 1988-96. One of the nation’s top defensive coaches, MacNeill’s charges consistently ranked among the best defensive teams in the Yankee Conference. His 1991 squad finished the year first nationally in scoring defense, second in total defense and fifth in rushing defense while leading the Yankee Conference in every defensive category. The Wildcats placed first nationally in rushing defense in 1992. In 1996, Villanova finished 8-4 and earned a berth in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

While at Villanova, MacNeill coached three AFCA/Kodak First Team All-Americans, one Associated Press All-American, six first team All-Yankee Conference performers, six first team All-ECAC selections and one player who went on to the NFL. He received a Master’s degree in Educational Administration from Villanova in 1994.

A 1979 Cortland graduate with a Bachelor of Science in Physical Education, MacNeill was a four-year Red Dragon letterwinner and three-year starter at linebacker and defensive tackle. He served as a team tri-captain during his senior campaign in 1978. In his last varsity game against Southern Connecticut State, he was credited with 11 unassisted tackles and three quarterback sacks.

MacNeill began his football coaching career as an assistant at Port Byron (N.Y.) Central High School from 1980 to 1982, prior to being named as a graduate assistant coach at Ithaca College. He coached Ithaca’s junior varsity team in 1982 and was in charge of the Bombers’ receivers in 1983.

A native of Walton, N.Y., MacNeill was an all-league defensive end at Walton Central High School as a senior in 1974. MacNeill and his wife, Sherrie, have two daughters — Mikayla, 8, and Maura, 5.

28 CORTLAND
About SUNY Cortland

Located atop one of the rolling hills in central New York’s “City of Seven Valleys,” the State University of New York College at Cortland was founded in 1868 as the Cortland Normal School, which included among its earliest students inventor and industrialist Elmer A. Sperry of Sperry-Rand Corp. fame.

Over the decades, the campus expanded and in 1941, by an act of legislature and the Board of Regents, the institution officially became a four-year college providing courses leading to the bachelor’s degree. In 1948, Cortland was a founding member of the State University of New York.

Today, approximately 7,500 students are pursuing degrees within the College’s three academic divisions — arts and sciences, professional studies and the school of education. Twenty-three departments with a faculty of more than 400 offer the SUNY Cortland student body 70 majors and 44 minors from which to choose.

The College’s main campus covers 191 acres and includes 30 traditional and modern buildings. Fourteen of these structures are residence halls providing on-campus housing for approximately 3,000 students. Cortland also operates its Outdoor Education Center at Raquette Lake in the Adirondacks, the Hoxie Gorge Nature Preserve outside Cortland, and the Brauer Memorial Geological Field Station on the Helderberg Escarpment near Albany.

At Cortland, athletics are viewed as having an important role in the educational mission of the College. During the fall, winter and spring seasons, Cortland participates in 25 intercollegiate sports — 14 women’s and 11 men’s — in an attempt to provide a broad program which meets the needs, interests and abilities of its students.

The Cortland athletic program placed eighth nationally out of 430 colleges and universities in the 2003-04 all-sport National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Directors’ Cup Division III standings. The award was formerly known as the Sears Directors’ Cup from 1995-2002. Cortland is the only New York school and one of only six nationwide to finish in the top 20 each of the last nine years. Since 1989, the Red Dragons have captured 12 NCAA Division III team titles.

The College offers its student-athletes excellent athletic facilities. The newly-constructed on-campus stadium features two artificial turf fields. One field seats 6,500 spectators, the other 1,500. The Cortland football, field hockey, men’s and women’s soccer, men’s and women’s lacrosse and men’s and women’s track and field teams are among those who utilize the facility, which the New York Times called “...a new stadium worthy of a major university power.”

The Bessie L. Park Physical Education and Recreation Center, opened in 1973, features the Whitney T. Corey Gymnasium with a 3,500 seating capacity; the Olympic-sized Harriet Holsten swimming pool with gallery seating for 1,500; the Alumni Ice Arena, a facility which can accommodate 2,500 spectators; a 500-seat gymnastics arena, racquetball and squash courts, a wrestling room, modern athletic training facilities and the state-of-the-art Francis Woods Fitness Facility.

Nearby Clayton R. Lusk Field House, with its tartan-textured surface, is home for the indoor track teams, varsity practice sessions and recreational activities. Cortland’s soccer teams play on T. Fred “Prof” Holloway Field, which has lights for night contests and newly installed bleachers. The College also has 22 outdoor tennis courts and two outdoor basketball courts and boasts Robert H. Wallace Field (baseball) and Dragon Field (softball) as part of its 51 acres of athletic fields.
