Cortland's Stef Sair Selected as NJAC Special Teams Player of the Week

SUNY Cortland junior safety Stef Sair (Huntington) has been chosen as the New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC) Football Special Teams Player of the Week for the week ending Oct. 22.

Sair returned a punt 40 yards for a touchdown, in addition to scoring a rushing touchdown, in Cortland's 31-0 victory at William Paterson. Sair's scoring return, which gave Cortland a 17-0 lead late in the first half, is the first punt return for a touchdown not resulting from a blocked kick by a Red Dragon since 1998. He finished the game with four punt returns for 55 yards.

Sair also saw his first collegiate offensive action in the contest, lining up for a handful of plays at wide receiver. He caught a 15-yard pass in the first quarter to set up a field goal and ran a reverse for a 10-yard touchdown in the third quarter.

Cortland improved to 5-2 overall and 4-1 in NJAC play with the win. The Red Dragons conclude conference play at home this Saturday versus Western Connecticut State at 1 p.m.
