SOUTH HADLEY, MASS. – The SUNY Cortland women's golf team placed 13th out of 14 schools at the two-day Mount Holyoke Invitational. The tournament was held at The Orchards, the site of this past summer's U.S. Women's Open.

The Red Dragons finished with a two-day score of 773, two strokes behind 12th-place St. Lawrence. Cortland trailed the Saints by 17 strokes after the first day before closing the margin on Sunday.

St. John's University of New York won the tournament with a score of 645. Hartford was second at 675. Seven Division I teams competed at the tournament.

Freshman Alyssa Ruggiero (Waterford/Shenendehowa) was Cortland's top finisher with a 19th-place score of 172. She carded an 85 on Saturday and an 87 on Sunday. Sophomore Jenna Chamberlain (Waddington/Madrid-Waddington) tied for 31st at 181 (92-89) and senior Tara Caley (North Salem) tied for 64th with a 208 (115-93). Sophomore Kristen Wood (Cortland) was 68th (212) and senior Nicole Axtell (Stamford) placed 70th (236) in the 78-golfer field.

Kelly Cramp of McDaniel was the tournament medalist with a 154, including a two-over par 74 on Sunday. Susan Choi of Wellesley finished one stroke behind at 155 (79-76).
