SUNY Cortland Women’s Golf
at Wellesley Fall Invitational
Saturday-Sunday, October 2-3, 2004; Nehoiden Golf Course; Wellesley, Mass.

WELLESLEY, MASS. – Freshman Alyssa Ruggiero (Waterford/Shenendehowa) placed sixth in a 40-golfer field to lead Cortland to a fifth place finish at the Wellesley College Fall Invitational at the Nehoiden Golf Course.

Ruggiero posted a two-day score of 165, nine strokes behind champion Susan Choi of the host school. Ruggiero was three strokes off the lead with an 82 on Saturday, then carded an 83 on Sunday. Choi recorded scores of 80 and 76.

Sophomore Jenna Chamberlain (Waddington/Madrid-Waddington) tied for 17th at 182 (93-89) and senior Tara Caley (North Salem) was 26th with a 194 (95-99). Sophomore Kristen Wood (Cortland) was 34th (106-104=210) and senior Nicole Axtell (Stamford) was 35th (101-115=216).

Cortland finished with a two-day score of 746. The Red Dragons had a 371 on Saturday and a 375 on Sunday. Wellesley won the tournament with a 686, followed by Mount Holyoke (692), Amherst (697), Middlebury (717), Cortland, St. Lawrence (751) and Vassar (798).

# #