Cortland, N.Y. -- Cornell earned the top six spots on uneven bars and boasted the individual champion in all four events as the Big Red defeated host SUNY Cortland 183.80-182.125 in a women's gymnastics dual meet. Cornell is now 1-0 and Cortland, which posted a season-best score, is 2-2.

Cornell won on vault by a slim 45.275-45.075 margin and dominated on bars, 46.95-43.025, to take the lead after two events. Cortland closed its deficit in the final two events, winning balance beam, 46.975-45.15, and floor exercise, 47.05-46.425.

Junior Denise Hurd (Greensboro, NC/Grimsley) won vault (9.575), sophomore Andrea Mavro (Douglaston/Stuyvesant) won uneven bars (9.65), senior Shannon Weiman (Westport, CT/Staples) finished first on balance beam (9.65) and junior Stefi Daehler (Belmont, CA/Sacred Heart Prep) placed first on floor exercise (9.70). Also for the Big Red, junior Rachel Goldberg (Indianapolis, IN/North Central) tied for second on vault (9.20) and freshman Cathy Schnell (Annapolis, MD/Broadneck) was second on uneven bars (9.50).

For Cortland, junior Danin Squires (Syracuse/Solvay) finished second on both balance beam (9.575) and floor exercise (9.55). Junior Megan Powers (Merrick/Calhoun) tied for second on vault (9.20), senior Carrie Costello (Cohoes/Catholic Central) and freshman Brittany Pensgen (Fairport) tied for third on beam (9.40) and sophomore Lauren Mock (Lake Grove/Sachem) finished third on floor exercise (9.475).

Cortland will compete in a quad-meet next Saturday, Feb. 1, at Cornell at 2 p.m. along with Brown University and Wilson College of Pennsylvania.
