Cortland’s Kyle Lambert Chosen as SUNYAC Men’s Lacrosse Player of the Week

SUNY Cortland freshman Kyle Lambert (Brentwood) was named the State University of New York Athletic Conference Men’s Lacrosse Player of the Week for the week ending March 30.

Lambert recorded five goals and five assists in two Red Dragon victories last week. He scored four times and assisted on two goals in a 25-0 win over SUNYIT. In an 18-9 victory versus Oswego, Lambert scored once and notched three assists. Lambert also registered 11 ground balls during the week, including seven against SUNYIT.

Cortland, ranked seventh nationally in Division III, is now 5-2 overall and 3-0 in SUNYAC play.
