Hyatt, Roth, Estrella and Hughes Named to All-ECAC Men's Lacrosse Team

SUNY Cortland senior attackman Drew Hyatt (Jamesville/Jamesville-DeWitt), senior midfielder Andrew Roth (Ridgewood, NJ/Don Bosco Prep), senior defenseman Frank Estrella (Suffern) and junior attackman Adam Hughes (North Syracuse/Cicero-North Syracuse) have been chosen to the 2004 Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Division III Upstate New York men's lacrosse all-star team.

Hyatt, Roth and Estrella were first team selections and Hughes is a second team honoree. Hyatt and Roth had previously been chosen as first team Division III All-Americans. Estrella was a second team All-America and Hughes was an All-America honorable mention.

Hyatt led the Red Dragons this season with 76 points, the fifth highest single-season total in school history. He tied for second on the team with 37 goals and led Cortland with 39 assists. He surpassed the 50-point mark for the third time in four seasons and finished his career fifth on Cortland's scoring charts with 198 points (92 goals, 106 assists) and fourth in assists.

Roth recorded 41 points this season on 31 goals and 10 assists. He led the Red Dragons with eight extra-man goals and scooped up 33 ground balls. A fifth-round draft selection by the Philadelphia Barrage of Major League Lacrosse, Roth finished 12th in career scoring at Cortland with 169 points and 10th in career goals scored with 112.

Estrella finished the season with one assist and 39 ground balls and anchored a Cortland defense that allowed less than seven goals per game. He was assessed only one penalty all season.

Hughes finished the spring with 37 goals and 22 assists for 59 points, the second-highest point total on the team. He was also fourth on the squad with 63 ground balls. In three seasons, Hughes is ranked 14th at Cortland with 163 points (98 goals, 65 assists).

Cortland finished the season 15-3 and advanced to the NCAA Division III quarterfinals. The Red Dragons qualified for the NCAA tournament for the fourth straight season and progressed to at least the quarterfinals in each of the last three years.
