SUNY Cortland vs. Hartwick College
Saturday, April 3, 2004; All-Weather Field; Oneonta, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 11, Hartwick 5

ONEONTA, N.Y. – Junior Adam Hughes (North Syracuse/Cicero-North Syracuse) scored four goals and assisted on another and senior midfielder Andrew Roth (Ridgewood, NJ/Don Bosco Prep) added three goals as nationally sixth-ranked Cortland earned an 11-5 victory at Hartwick College.

Sophomore goalie Bryan Scipione (East Meadow) made 16 saves, nine in the second half, for the Red Dragons (6-1). Sophomore Matt O’Connell (Camillus/West Genesee), senior Drew Hyatt (Jamesville/Jameville-DeWitt) and freshman Ryan Simensky (Locust Valley) each finished with one goal and two assists and sophomore Kyle Lambert (Brentwood) registered one goal and one assist. Hartwick (6-3) was led by Mike Debrossy's two goals. Mark Colite stopped 12 Cortland shots.

The teams were tied 2-2 at the end of the first period. Hartwick took a 3-2 lead on Debrossy’s second goal of the game with 13:46 left in the second quarter, but the Red Dragons scored the final five goals of the half. Roth had two goals during that stretch and Hughes had a goal and an assist.

Hartwick came out strong in the third period, outshooting Cortland 11-5 in the period and scoring the only two goals. Brian Prescott’s extra-man goal with 42 seconds left drew the Hawks within 7-5 entering the fourth quarter. Cortland pulled away, though, by netting all four goals in the fourth quarter. Simensky scored 50 seconds into the period, followed by a Lambert goal at the 9:12 mark and two Hughes goals in the final 8:15.

Cortland finished the game 3-for-5 on extra-man opportunities and held advantages in shots (34-29) and ground balls (36-24). Freshman Bill Gleason (Camillus/West Genesee) won 12-of-20 faceoffs and picked up a game-high nine ground balls.
