Saturday, April 16, 2005; All College Field; Oneonta, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 18, Oneonta 6

ONEONTA, N.Y. – Junior Brian Atkins (Adams/South Jefferson) and junior Mike Abbott (Syracuse/Nottingham) each scored four goals, and senior Adam Hughes (North Syracuse/Cicero-North Syracuse) became the fifth player in school history to reach 200 career points, as nationally third-ranked Cortland defeated Oneonta, 18-6. The Red Dragons upped their record to 10-1 overall and 3-0 in SUNYAC play. Oneonta is 5-6, 1-2 in the league.

Hughes scored twice in the contest to improve his career totals at Cortland to 123 goals and 77 assists for 200 points. He is the first Red Dragon to hit the 200-point mark since Kenny “Kiko” Garcia surpassed the level in 1994. Mike Perkins (1982-85) is Cortland's career scoring leader with 271 points, followed by Mark Koetzner (1978-81) with 225, Mike Hoppey (1975-78) with 223 and Garcia (1991-94) with 217.

Atkins finished with an assist in addition to his four goals. Abbott won 9-of-15 faceoffs and grabbed 11 ground balls. Junior Kyle Lambert (Brentwood) added two goals and an assist, freshman Adam Hyde (West Seneca/West Seneca East) scored twice and junior Matt O’Connell (Camillus/West Genesee) tallied a goal and two assists.

Junior Ben Gaebel (Deferiet/Carthage) made eight saves and allowed four goals in 45 minutes. Junior Bryan Scipione (East Meadow) stopped three shots in the fourth quarter. Oneonta was led by Keith Horn's two goals. Chad Wagoner and Dan Orlowski each picked up a goal and an assist and Kyle Reich recorded 20 saves.

The hosts tried to slow the game down early, but Cortland defeated that game plan with a five-goal spurt between the 9:50 and 3:05 marks of the first quarter featuring five different goal scorers – Abbott, Ryan Simensky (Locust Valley), Atkins, Hughes and Lambert. Leading 5-1 after one quarter, the Red Dragons received goals from Tim Castoro (Melville/Walt Whitman) and Atkins 40 seconds apart early in the second quarter to lead 7-1.

Cortland led 8-3 at halftime and quickly put the game away with six goals in the first 7:29 of the third quarter. Atkins and Abbott each scored twice during the run. Leading 15-6 in the fourth quarter, the Red Dragons scored the final three goals, including a Hughes goal with 5:43 left for his 200th point. Hughes lead Cortland this spring with 37 points, including a team-high 25 goals.
