CORTLAND - Five different players scored goals in a 20-minute span in the first half to lead Cortland to a 5-0 victory over Emerson College Friday night at Holloway Field in the opening round of the Cortland Soccer Classic. The Red Dragons will host Worcester State College, a 1-0 loser to Ithaca College in the day's first game, Saturday at seven p.m., while Ithaca plays Emerson at five p.m.

Senior forward Jesse Mankowski (Clarence) started the flurry in the 10th minute when he booted home a rebound of his penalty kick that was originally turned back by Emerson sophomore goalkeeper Ed Silberstein (Weymouth, MA). Mankowski then set up junior forward Aaron Anderson-Winchell's (Bloomingburg/Pine Bush) goal less than two minutes later on a through pass up the middle just inside of the box.

Junior defenseman Chris Mahigian (Troy/Tamarac) made it 3-0 in the 24th minute when he converted a corner kick from junior Steve Castro (Elmont/Sewanhaka) just inside the right post. One minute later, senior Kevin Russell (Delmar/Bethlehem) scored on a penalty kick to increase the lead to 4-0. Mankowski collected his second assist of the night as he set up freshman forward Joe Leverson's (Conesus/Livonia) first career goal as a Red Dragon in the 30th minute.

Cortland carried play in the second half, but Silberstein, who finished with 12 saves, turned back every Red Dragon opportunity. For the game, Cortland outshot the Lions 30-8 and had a 12-2 advantage in corner kicks.

Junior Greg Montano (Henrietta/Rush-Henrietta) started in goal for Cortland and made three saves in 63:30 before giving way to freshman Sean Trask (Alplaus/Niskayuna), who was not forced to make a stop in the game's final 26:30.
