SUNY Cortland Men’s Soccer

SUNY Cortland vs. Ithaca College
Tuesday, October 29, 2002; at Ithaca, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 1, Ithaca 0

ITHACA, N.Y. -- Senior Kevin Russell (Delmar/Bethlehem) scored in the 51st minute and freshman Ross Morelli (Rochester/Hilton) made three saves to record his fourth shutout of the season as Cortland (13-5-1) defeated host Ithaca College 1-0. The Red Dragons have won seven straight games, their longest winning streak since nine in a row in 1991. Ithaca is now 9-5-2.

Russell scored his 12th goal of the season 5:17 into the second half off an assist from senior Kyle Kilmartin (Johnstown). Morelli stopped a penalty kick in the second half to preserve the shutout. Cortland outshot Ithaca 15-4, including a 10-1 margin in the second half. The Red Dragons also took 10 corner kicks to two for the Bombers. Ithaca goalie Ted Meyer made eight saves.

The win snaps the Red Dragons’ eight-year winless streak against the Bombers. Cortland was 0-7-1 versus the Bombers since winning at home in 1993.

Cortland wraps up the regular season this Saturday at 1 p.m. at home versus Hamilton College. The Red Dragons will be the second seed in the SUNYAC tournament and will face either Plattsburgh or Geneseo in the semifinals in Oneonta on Nov. 8.
