SUNY Cortland vs. St. Lawrence University
Saturday, September 14, 2002; at Canton, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: St. Lawrence 3, Cortland 2 (2OT)

CANTON -- In a game filled with rough play and multiple cautions and ejections, nationally 11th-ranked St. Lawrence defeated 21st ranked Cortland 3-2 in double overtime Saturday in Canton.

The Red Dragons took a 2-0 lead after the first 45 minutes on goals from junior Aaron Anderson-Winchell (Bloomingburg/Pine Bush) and junior Brian Dermody (Port Washington/Paul D. Schreiber). St. Lawrence eventually tied the score at 2-2 with goals in the 71st and 78th minutes and won the game just 1:51 into the second overtime.

Anderson-Winchell put Cortland up 1-0 when he lofted a shot over St. Lawrence’s goalie’s head for his second goal of the season in the 19th minute. Twenty minutes later, a wild skirmish occurred on the field, which led to each team being down two players. Less than four minutes later, Dermody headed in a service from the left side by senior Kevin Russell (Delmar/Bethlehem), who has now scored at least one point in each of Cortland’s six games.

Freshman goalie Sean Trask (Alplaus/Niskayuna) made four saves for the Red Dragons in his second start of the season.
