SUNY Cortland Men’s Soccer

SUNY Fredonia vs. SUNY Cortland
Saturday, October 18, 2003; Stadium Complex; Cortland, NY

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 3, Fredonia 0

CORTLAND, N.Y. - Junior Christian Peters (Wesel, Germany/Konrad-Duden) scored two goals to lead the Cortland men’s soccer team to a 3-0 win over SUNYAC rival Saturday afternoon at the SUNY Cortland Stadium Complex. With the win, the Red Dragons improved to 10-4-1 overall and 5-3 in the conference, while the Blue Devils fell to 8-4-3 and 4-3-1. Each team has one SUNYAC contest remaining.

Fredonia had the first scoring opportunity in the 10th minute, but junior Tim Cupello’s (Rochester/Aquinas) header off a corner kick from sophomore Garrett Hauschild (Skaneateles) was turned back at the post by Cortland junior midfielder Zak Tonovitz (Amherst/Williamsville North). Red Dragon junior Matt Daum (New Paltz) nearly gave Cortland the lead in the 24th minute as his 20-yard shot struck the right post.

Four minutes later, Peters made in a 1-0 game. Daum possessed the ball on the left side of the box and slid a pass to Peters, who one-timed a five-yard shot to the right of Fredonia sophomore goalie Matt Borchard (Williamsville/Williamsville South). The Red Dragons struck again early in the second half on freshman Bo Grechka’s (Owego/Owego Free Academy) unassisted goal. Grechka struck a 25-yard left-footed shot from the right side that bent just inside of the left post.

The Blue Devils had a good chance to cut the lead to one goal in the 56th minute. Cupello went up for a header on a long serve into the box and his shot was deflected by Cortland sophomore goalie Sean Trask (Alplaus/Niskayuna), rolling just wide of the left post. Peters sealed the game in the 79th minute when he accepted a through ball from freshman Jordan Berg (Jamestown) and drilled a 15-yard knuckling shot past Borchard.

While the statistics appeared even - Cortland led 19-17 in shots and the corner kicks were five apiece - the Red Dragons created more chances and the Blue Devils sent more long shots on goal. Trask stopped seven shots for Cortland, while Borchard made three saves before being replaced by senior Adam Flanders (Liverpool) in the 80th minute. Flanders did not register a save for Fredonia.
