OSWEGO, N.Y. - Juniors Christian Peters (Wesel, Germany/Konrad-Duden) and Chad Becker (Rochester/Churchville-Chili) each scored a first-half goal as Cortland clinched third place in the SUNYAC with a 2-0 win at Oswego Wednesday afternoon. The Red Dragons improved to 11-4-1 overall and 6-3 in the conference with the win and will host a first-round conference playoff game on Tuesday, November 4 against an opponent to be determined. The Lakers fell to 4-13 and 2-7.

Peters gave the Red Dragons the lead in the 27th minute, scoring his fourth goal of the season on an unassisted effort. Four and a half minutes later, Becker notched his sixth goal off the season off an assist from senior Brian Dermody (Port Washington/Paul D. Schreiber) to make it a 2-0 game.

Cortland outshot the Lakers 14-5 in the game, including an 11-3 edge in the opening half, and held a 9-2 advantage on corner kicks. Sophomore goalie Sean Trask (Alplaus/Niskayuna) made two saves in registering his second consecutive shutout.
