Cortland Places Four on SUNYAC Men’s Soccer All-Star Team

Four members of the SUNY Cortland men’s soccer team have been chosen to the 2004 State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) all-league team. Senior defender Zak Tonovitz (Williamsville/Williamsville North) was a first team selection. Senior forward Matt Daum (New Paltz) and junior defender Collyn Hoyte (Medford/Longwood) were named to the second team, and senior forward Chad Becker (Rochester/Churchville-Chili) was an honorable mention selection.

Tonovitz recorded a goal and two assists in 20 games this fall. He helped the Red Dragon defense post five shutouts and allow only one goal in eight other contests.

Daum led the Red Dragons with 12 goals and 28 total points. He also finished with a team-best five game-winning goals. Hoyte had three goals, including one game winner, and two assists to finish fourth on the team with eight points.

Becker was second on the club with three goals, two of which were game winners. He also registered three assists and tied for second on the team with nine points.

Cortland finished the season with a 10-10 record.
