Friday, Sept. 17, 2004; Clarkson Field; Potsdam, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 3, Clarkson 0

POTSDAM, N.Y. – Senior Matt Daum (New Paltz) recorded a goal and an assist as Cortland defeated host Clarkson, 3-0, for its third straight victory. The Red Dragons (3-3) will play at St. Lawrence and Clarkson (1-5) will host RIT on Saturday in non-league matchups.

Daum netted his fifth goal of the season with 22 minutes, 36 seconds left in the first half. Senior Zak Tonovitz (Williamsville/Williamsville North) sent an indirect kick toward the goalie’s box that Daum was able to head in over the outstretched hands of Clarkson goalie David Hennessey.

Sophomore Jordan Berg (Jamestown) gave the Red Dragons a 2-0 lead 3:36 into the second half when his shot, set up by Daum, just trickled over the goal line. Freshman Sean Malone (Tully) finished the scoring with an unassisted goal, his first as a Red Dragon, with 9:33 remaining.

Junior Ross Morelli (Rochester/Hilton) made four saves to post the shutout. Hennessey stopped five shots. Cortland outshot the Knights, 12-5.
