Suny Cortland Men's Soccer

Suny Cortland vs. Suny Potsdam
Saturday, October 16, 2004; Potsdam, N.Y.

Final score: Potsdam 1, Cortland 0

Potsdam, N.Y. - The Cortland men’s soccer team will fail to defend its SUNYAC title after falling 1-0 to Potsdam Saturday afternoon on the road. The loss drops the Red Dragons to 7-9 overall and 3-5 in the conference with one league contest remaining versus Oswego. Even with a win against the Lakers, Cortland, which has won three straight conference crowns, can finish no higher than seventh in the SUNYAC. The top-six teams qualify for the playoffs. Potsdam improved its record to 5-11-1 and 2-6.

Cortland outshot the Bears, 8-3, in the game, including 5-1 in the first half and held a decisive 10-3 advantage in corner kicks. The Red Dragons, however, were denied by Potsdam goalie Adam Youmelle, who turned aside all five shots he faced in the opening half and six for the game.

The only goal of the game came in the 60th minute when Potsdam’s Gary Lee converted a penalty kick. Cortland junior Ross Morelli (Rochester/Hilton) made one save in the game.
