Cortland's John Crawford Named
SUNYAC Men's Outdoor Track and Field Coach of the Year

SUNY Cortland's John Crawford has been chosen as the 2004 State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Men's Outdoor Track and Field Coach of the Year in a vote of the league's coaches.

Crawford, who was also the league's men's indoor Coach of the Year this season, led the Red Dragons to the SUNYAC outdoor title last week. Cortland had finished second to Geneseo by six points in 2003, but won this year's title by 63 points over the second-place Knights. Cortland captured seven individual titles and two relay victories at the meet.

Crawford is in his second year as Cortland's men's track and field coach. He also is currently serving as the Red Dragon women's track and field interim head coach. Prior to his arrival at Cortland, Crawford was the assistant men's and women's track and field coach at Division I Virginia Military Institute from 1999-2002. He is a graduate of Geneva College (Pa.).
