SUNY Cortland vs. Anderson Univ. (Ind.) and SUNY Cortland vs. Marietta College (Ohio)
Friday, March 14, 2003; Rebel Spring Games; Orlando, FL

FINAL SCORES: Cortland 2, Anderson 0; Cortland 4, Marietta 0

ORLANDO, FLA. – The SUNY Cortland softball team won a pair of games on Friday to finish its trip to the Rebel Spring Games with a 10-0 record. In the Red Dragons' first game, they defeated Anderson (Ind.) 2-0. They wrapped up their road trip with a 4-0 win over Marietta (Ohio).

In game one, freshman Maria McFeeley (Hamburg/Mt. Mercy Academy) tossed a one-hitter with seven strikeouts to raise her record to 4-0 on the season. She hasn't allowed a run in 21 innings pitched. The only hit she surrendered was a single to center by Amber Hall, Anderson's pitcher, with one out in the fifth inning.

Junior Carin Piacente (Putnam Valley/Walter Panas) gave McFeely all the offensive support she needed with a two-out RBI single that plated senior Jonna Ball (Peekskill/Hendrick Hudson), who had doubled to lead off the game. Piacente provided the second run in the third inning when she doubled home senior Julie Gentner (Williamsville/Williamsville South). Gentner finished the game 3-for-4, while Piacente went 2-for-4 with the two runs batted in.

In the second game, freshman pitcher Stephanie Adamshick (Milton/Marlboro) threw her fourth complete game of the season, allowing four hits and striking out five to improve her record to 4-0.

Cortland broke a scoreless tie in the bottom of the third on Gentner's sacrifice fly, scoring senior Megan Cross (Middletown/Minisink Valley) from third. Three straight singles by Cross, Ball and freshman Jennifer Rockwell (Scotia) set up the run.

The Red Dragons added three more runs in the fifth. Ball led off the inning with a base hit and advanced to second on Rockwell's sacrifice. Gentner moved Ball to third with a single. Piacente plated Ball with a sacrifice fly, and Gentner scored after junior Lara Stone (Windsor) singled and was caught in a run down between first and second. Stone later scored on sophomore Keri Banta's (Washingtonville) single through the left side.

Gentner went 2-for-3 and Ball went 2-for-4 for Cortland, which returns to action on Friday and Saturday, March 21-22, with four games at the Montclair State/Kean University Classic in New Jersey. The Red Dragons will face Bridgewater St. (Mass.) and Kean on Friday at Kean at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., respectively. On Saturday, Cortland faces Muhlenberg (Pa.) at 10 a.m. at Kean and plays Montclair State on its own field at 2 p.m.
