FINAL SCORES:

Ohio Wesleyan 6, Cortland 1

ORLANDO, FLA. – Cortland, ranked seventh nationally in Division III, defeated fourth-ranked Muskingum College, 6-0, Monday afternoon before dropping a 6-1 decision to Ohio Wesleyan later that evening. The Red Dragons are 2-2, with their two wins coming versus ranked opponents. Cortland defeated 22nd-ranked Simpson on Sunday.

Sophomore Stephanie Adamshick (Milton/Marlboro) tossed a four-hit shutout against the Muskies (0-1). She struck out six and walked four. Cortland defeated 2003 first team Division III All-American Erica Hoyt, who allowed only one hit but walked 10 in three innings. Hoyt was 21-1 last season.

Cortland took a 3-0 lead in the bottom of the first inning. Junior Kim Huson (Binghamton/Johnson City) led off with a bunt and reached on a throwing error by the third baseman. Sophomore Rudy Loiacono (Williamsville/Williamsville South) moved Huson to second with a sacrifice bunt and was safe on the play as Huson beat the throw to second. Senior Lara Stone's sacrifice bunt advanced the runners and sophomore Jen Rockwell (Scotia) was intentionally walked to load the bases. Senior Pip Colombo (Williamsville/Williamsville North) drew a walk to bring in a run and junior Erin Bock (East Hampton) followed with a two-run single to left center.

The Red Dragons added two runs in the third on back-to-back bases-loaded walks by Loiacono and Stone and another in the sixth when senior Carin Piacente (Putnam Valley/Walter Panas) singled, stole second, moved to third on a Rockwell single and scored on a Colombo ground out to short. Rockwell finished 2-for-3 and Colombo and Bock each had two RBI. Adamshick escaped a bases loaded jam with one out in the third with a strikeout and a pop-up. Muskingum also had two runners on with one out in the fifth before a fielder's choice and a strikeout ended the inning. In the seventh, two Muskies reached base to start the inning, but Adamshick retired the next three batters, two by strikeout, to end the game.

Ohio Wesleyan (2-1) jumped on Cortland senior starting pitcher Lara Almansberger (Fairport) for five hits and three runs in one-plus innings. The Battling Bishops took a 2-0 lead in the first on a Tiffany Stinemetz RBI double and a Sarah Downs RBI single. They added a run in the second on a Sandra Mowery double and a Leah Schilling RBI single. In the third, back-to-back hit batters with runners on second and third platted a run, followed by a fielder's choice that scored another. Ohio Wesleyan's final run came in the fourth when Linsey Longstreth stole home on the front end of a 1st-and-3rd double steal.

Freshman Claire Martin earned the win, allowing seven hits and one walk while striking out five. Her shutout bid was broken up by the Red Dragons in the top of the fifth when Loiacono singled with two outs and scored on a Stone triple. Stone finished 2-for-4 with a double and triple, but lined into a triple play to end the game. With the bases loaded and no outs in the top of the seventh, Stone hit a liner that the Red Dragons thought was trapped by the third baseman. The play was ruled a catch, however, and the fielder tagged the runner coming off third and threw to first to complete the triple play.
