Cortland's Erika Cremona SUNYAC and ECAC Softball Pitcher of the Week

SUNY Cortland senior Erika Cremona (Mastic Beach/William Floyd) has been named both the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) and Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Division III Upstate New York softball Pitcher of the Week for the week ending April 10.

Cremona was 3-0 with a 0.37 earned run average during the week. She allowed only one run, six hits and seven walks and struck out 23 batters in 19 innings pitched. Opponents batted only a combined .094 against her.

On Wednesday, she tossed five hitless inning as part of a combined no-hitter in Cortland's 4-0 win over Cazenovia. She followed that outing on Friday with a three-hit shutout in a 1-0 win at Oswego, striking out 11 batters while walking only two. On Sunday, she gave up three hits, two walks and one run while fanning five in six innings of work as Cortland completed an 8-0 week with a 5-2 victory over RIT.

For the season, Cremona is 5-3 with a 0.93 ERA. In her last six appearances, she is 5-0 with a 0.23 ERA (one run allowed in 31 innings).

# #