SUNY Cortland vs. Marietta College; SUNY Cortland vs. Muskingum College
Monday, March 7, 2005; Rebel Spring Games; Kissimmee, Fla.

FINAL SCORES:
Cortland 7, Marietta 4
Muskingum 5, Cortland 1

KISSIMMEE, FLA. – Cortland rallied from a 3-0 deficit to defeat Marietta College, 7-4, in its first game of the day at the Rebel Spring Games. The 11th-ranked Red Dragons lost to third-ranked Muskingum, however, 5-1, in a matchup of two teams that have each been to the NCAA Division III World Series the past two seasons.

In Cortland's first game, sophomore Ang D’Amboise (Ballston Lake/Shenedehowa) pitched a complete game for the win. She allowed seven hits and four runs, two earned, struck out six and walked none. Junior outfielder Kim Wood (Equinunk, PA/Hancock) went 4-for-4 with two stolen bases, while sophomore catcher Blythe Beecher (Corning/Corning East) and senior second baseman Carisa Gaylardo (West Babylon/North Babylon) each were 2-for-3 with an RBI.

Marietta took a 3-0 lead in the top of the second inning, recording four of its seven hits in the process. The first run scored on an Amie Weis RBI single, the second on an error and the third on an RBI single by Lindsey Romick.

Cortland got two runs back in the second, one on a muffed throw after a Wood single and the other on a double steal, with junior Nicole Fredericks (West Babylon) stealing second and Wood stealing home on the play. Marietta upped its lead to 4-2 in the fourth on a Weis RBI single and held that advantage until the bottom of the fifth. Cortland scored five times in that frame to take the lead for good. Wood and Fredericks hit back-to-back singles and freshman Shara Evanter (Commack) hit a sacrifice fly to center to score Wood. After a fielder's choice, senior Amber Ortolano (Buffalo/Kenmore West) tripled to right to tie the game and sophomore Megan Dore (Staatsburg/F.D. Roosevelt) singled in Ortolano to break the tie. Dore went to second on an error and scored on Beecher's RBI single. Beecher advanced to second on the throw and scored on a Gaylardo single to center.

In the second game, Muskingum struck for two runs in the second and three in the third off Cortland starter Stephanie Adamshick (Milton/ Marlboro). Adamshick allowed six hits and three walks while fanning six in three and two-third innings. She gave up five runs, four earned. Senior Erika Cremona (Mastic Beach/William Floyd) pitched a scoreless two and a third innings, giving up just one hit and striking out one.

Back-to-back RBI doubles by Kim Tackett and Allie Scheetz produced the Muskies' runs in the second. An RBI single by Kari Hoying and a two-run single by Amy Iammarino plated the runs in the third. Cortland's run came on a strange play in the fifth. Fredericks walked with one out and went to second on a wild pitch. Senior Keri Banta (Washingtonville) then singled to right, with Fredericks initially holding at third. The throw to the infield was cut off by the first baseman, who chased Banta back to first base. Fredericks then took off for home and beat the throw to the plate. Banta, in turn, was then thrown out trying to advance to second.

Cortland managed four hits and seven walks off Muskingum starter Erica Hoyt, an All-American along with Adamshick last season, but left the bases loaded in both the third and fourth innings and stranded 10 runners in all. Sophomore Kate Yaun (Liberty) was 1-for-2 with a double and senior Erin Bock (East Hampton) finished 1-for-3 with a double.
