FINAL SCORES:
Cortland 9, King’s (PA) 0
Cortland 5, Muhlenberg 1

ALLENTOWN, PA. – Cortland won both of its games to finish first at the four-team Muhlenberg College Tournament. The nationally 11th-ranked Red Dragons (6-5) defeated King's College of Pennsylvania, 9-0, and the host school, 5-1. King's and Ithaca College each finished the tournament 1-1 and Muhlenberg was 0-2.

Junior Stephanie Adamshick (Milton/Marlboro) pitched a five-hit shutout versus King's. The game was called after six innings due to the eight-run rule. Adamshick struck out seven and walked two and is now 3-2 on the season. Sophomore shortstop Jamie Neuner (Brewster) was 3-for-4 with a stolen base and an RBI and senior Kim Huson (Binghamton/Johnson City) finished 2-for-3 with a double, three steals, three runs scored and an RBI.

Cortland jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the top of the first. Neuner reached on an infield single to start the inning. Huson bunted Neuner over to second and reached safely on an error, with Neuner advancing to third. After Huson stole second, sophomore Dominique Talbot (Rockville Centre/Southside) hit a fielder's choice grounder to short that drove in Neuner as everyone was safe on the play. Huson and Talbot eventually scored on wild pitches during the inning.

In the third, Huson led off with a single and stole second. Two batters later Nicole Fredericks (West Babylon) was hit by a pitch, and a double steal by Huson and Fredericks put runners on second and third. Junior Jen Rockwell (Scotia) then hit a blop double to left. Huson scored on the play, although Fredericks had to hold at third due to the location of the hit.

The Red Dragons put the game away with five runs in the sixth. Senior Amber Ortolano (Buffalo/Kenmore West) singled with one out and pinch-runner Christine Devine (East Greenbush/Columbia) moved to second on a groundout before scoring on a Keri Banta (Washingtonville) RBI single. Banta moved to second on the throw, and pinch-runner Kate Yaun (Liberty) was driven home on Carisa Gaylardo’s (West Babylon/North Babylon) RBI double. Neuner followed with an RBI single to left, then stole second before scoring on Huson's RBI double to left. Talbot's RBI single up the middle finished the scoring.

Senior Erika Cremona (Mastic Beach/William Floyd) earned the win versus Muhlenberg with five shutout innings. She allowed four hits and four walks and struck out two. Neuner led the Red Dragon offensive attack with a 3-for-3 effort, including a home run and three runs scored. Talbot and freshman Shara Evanter (Commack) were each 1-for-2 with an RBI and Rockwell was 1-for-3 with an RBI double.

Neuner keyed each of Cortland's scoring rallies. In the first, she led off with a single, moved to second on a Huson sacrifice bunt and scored on Talbot's RBI single to center. In the third, Neuner reached on a leadoff single and advanced to second on a Huson single. Talbot then bunted, and Muhlenberg's catcher threw the ball into right field to allow Neuner to score. Evanter followed with a sacrifice fly to center to score Huson and give the Red Dragons a 3-0 lead.

Neuner hit a solo homer to left center to lead off the fifth. Evanter singled with two outs and Rockwell hit an RBI double to score pinch-runner Amanda Barnett (Syracuse/Jamesville-DeWitt).

Muhlenberg had runners reach third base in each of the first two innings but couldn't score. The Mules got on the board in the sixth when Tina Roth hit a one-out double, her second two-bagger of the game, and scored on a two-out RBI single by Nicole Washburn. Washburn pitched five innings, allowing seven hits and five runs, three earned.
